

I do not believe the FCC should implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. It has been a blessing for our family to not be disturbed by all the unnecessary calls. It was not uncommon to receive 2-4 calls per evening while we were enjoying our time together. We now receive 0 calls, please keep it that way. Sincerely, Michael Ham